

Biography

Andrew Freestone

Portfolio Manager

Andrew Freestone joined Man GLG in November 2012 and is a Portfolio Manager on the GLG Cross Asset Value strategy.

Prior to this, Andrew was a Principal at Partners Capital where he was responsible for primary and secondary investments in Private Equity and Private Debt funds. In addition, he was responsible for portfolio management across asset classes for a number of clients.

Previously, Andrew worked at Monitor Group, a global strategy consultancy, where he led projects with a focus on financial institutions and resources companies.

Andrew received a Master of Financial Economics from the University of Toronto and an MA in Mathematics from the University of Cambridge. Andrew holds the Chartered Financial Analyst® and the Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst designations.