

Biography

Stephen Harker

Head of Japanese Equities

Stephen Harker holds a BA in Mathematics and Economics from the University of Warwick and an MA in Economics of Finance from the University of Sheffield.

Stephen has over 40 years of industry experience, and has concentrated on the Japanese equity market since April 1984, initially working for Prudential Portfolio Managers where he managed pension fund and mutual fund assets. He moved to TCW London International in early 1994. TCW was acquired in 2001 by Société Générale Asset Management (SGAM); SGAM UK was acquired by GLG Partners in April 2009; and GLG was in turn acquired by Man Group plc in October 2010.

In January 2006, Stephen and the Japan equity team created the Japan CoreAlpha strategy which has grown into an industry-leading large cap Japanese equity product offering.